VOL. III. NO. 294.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1897.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

THE EASTERN OUTLAW SITUATION.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., Dec. 9.—It is believed that the Maryland Legislature will this winter make some restrictions as to racing. As the law now stands each association is permitted to race thirty days, but the law has been evaded by the building of many tracks. There are three at Iron Hill, two at Singery and one at Elkton. This gives 180 days of continuous racing out of a possible 313. Last year the authorities came down upon the Iron Hill people who were operating all three tracks under one charter. There was a wholesale transferring of deeds and separate corporations were organized. It was one of these transfers that caused the recent trouble at Iron Hill. The legislature may not, however, interfere with the "outlaws."

MR. WHITNEY'S LATEST.

NEW YORK, December 9.—It is stated here among horsemen on authority that ex-Secretary Wm. C. Whitney is the head of a big syndicate which is to have an extensive stable on the turf in 1898. He has frequently denied the rumor that he is to become identified with the racing game in any way, but reports of important transactions in which he is concerned are of almost daily occurrence and the public is beginning to believe that the wealthy and popular New Yorker has designs on stakes and purses. His recent big purchases in Lexington would indicate that there is truth in the rumor.

McCONNELL STABLE PLANS.

W. A. McConnell, who is now racing Virgie Dixon, Mary Cavalier, Swordsman, Forbearance and a few others at New Orleans, will have a small but select string in 1898. He intends to dispose at once of those on hand, and relies on that good filly Lizzie Cavalier to lead his stable next season. The filly is now on H. P. Headley's farm and doing nicely. She stands 15:3 and weighs nearly 1000 pounds. McConnell has two very promising yearlings, one by Cavalier—Excellenza and the other by Lord Hartington. Both have shown quarters in better than 24 seconds.

WAS WANG TO BE FISCHER.

The Eastern "outlaw" authorities considered Fischer to be Wang and out of the gossip about it, the horse was scratched from last Monday's fourth race. The stories about it all paint a Chicago angle to the plot and declare that Wang is to be used as some other horse than Fischer at any early date.

INGLESIDE'S NEW JUMPING COURSE.

The new steeplechase course at Ingleside is stiff and novel on the lines of American procedure. It has cost some $12,000. The course is up and down hill, and some of the jumps will have to be taken at a very short angle. The jumps are much more solid and are a bit higher than those used in the previous hurdle races.

NO TURF CONGRESS ANARCHY.

The newspaper mischief over the few extra Pimlico days of racing is petering out. It will go to vapor when the matter of authority over American racing and territorial conditions is considered. This is no period for the mean-spiritedness of turf politics to be worked out in public. The best that can be done for the turf is the duty of the hour—East, West, North and South. The man who gets in the way with a grievance is an anarchist and should be suppressed in the most decided way. There are too many angles to American racing for any one turf body—as turf bodies are made up at present—to rule it. The Turf Congress has enough territory of its own to govern. It does not intelligently rule what is now—without dispute—within its scope. The Jockey Club does. The Jockey Club passed on the Pimlico case and its edict is entitled to deep respect. The Jockey Club has proven its fitness to rule its territory by mere performance and can be trusted.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

E. S. Gardner & Son will do most of their racing in the East next year. Bangle, which was one of the most promising of the two-year-olds before meeting with an accident at Louisville, has fully recovered and developed into a grand looking colt.

Great Tom died at Belle Meade last Monday. He was a beautifully English bred horse, old enough to vote and only a mild success as a sire of racehorses. His fame comes through the racing progeny of his daughters and will grow.

The filly by Patron—Lady Hemphill recently purchased by C. T. Patterson for $3,000, is pronounced a wonder. She recently worked a fast mile at Louisville, going the half in 50½ with 110 pounds up.

Gus Strauss, who bought Bersan at the Lexington sales, thinks there is a great future before the horse, and he will be bred to some of the best mares that he can secure this coming season.

John E. Madden thinks of breeding Hamburg to a few good mares this winter. According to his theory, a horse is much gamer after having been in the stud.

Archduke and a Knight of Ellerslie yearling were sent to England with Rensselaer. Clifford's half-brother is better than his racing showed.

Representatives of a Japanese syndicate are now on the coast buying thoroughbreds for breeding purposes in Japan.

Winner—Ch. c, by Torso—Trellis.
Start good. Won eased up. Odds On outclassed his field. He was lucky and well ridden. Prestar was in suitable going, but was unlucky. He closed strong after being interfered with on the first turn. Watch Flushington. He is of some account and is improving. The Wheel and Hertha are only sprinters. Defiant needs a hard track. So tab him. He was shut off at start. Mainbar was hardly bridle-wise. Cima is of no present account.
Scratched—Glenower, 93; Yorick, 98; El Puerto, 100; Tom Spencer, 103; San Venado, 106.
Overweights—Flushington, 2½ pounds.

3184 SECOND RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Time, 25½, 51½, 1:04½, 1:17½.

Winner—Br. h, 6, by Alta—Marilee.
Start good. Won in a hard drive. The Don was best. The going favored his dicker legs. He was shut off on the first turn and at the start, but was well ridden. Barr was lucky, but short. Benamela ran an impressive race. He was hampered at start and none too well handled. The same comment applies to Elmer F. Marco was short. He likes a distance and hard going. Torsion was short and favors fast footing. Watch him. Emma D is not dangerous at over five furlongs.

Scratched—Hyman, 119; Veragua, 119; St. Aignon, 119; Miss Ruth, 119; Gov. Budd, 119; Jack Martin, 119; Our Climate, 119; Elano, 119; Mainstay, 122.

Time, 25½, 52, 1:05½, 1:19½.

Winner—B. f, 3, by Martenhurst—Orange Leaf.
Start good. Won in a hard drive of three. Fig Leaf was the best, favored by the going, well ridden and lucky. The Belle likes a fast track best. She is but a sprinter. Charles A ran another good race and closed impressively. So did St. Aignon, who was short, badly managed and runs best on a hard course. Tobin and Soniro were short.
Scratched—Hyman, 110.

Winner—B. f, 4, by Rayon d'Or—Soney Lass.
Start straggling. Souffle was the best and in a soft spot. Yet she had to be ridden at the end. She was hampered at the start and on the first turn. Bernardillo had no excuse. He was lucky and is good. Watch him. Lost Girl was badly ridden. She needs a strong jockey. Song and Dance is a rogue. He needs acute riding. Watch Miss Prim. She ran short.
Overweights—Souffle, 2 pounds; Bernardillo, 3.

Time, 25¹/₂, 51¹/₂, 1:05, 1:11¹/₂.

Winner—Ch. c. 2, by Sir Modred—Fidelity.
Start good. The first three were driving. The track suited Hermoso. He was lucky too and well ridden. Goleta was the best. She was shut off both at start and on the stretch turn and far from well managed. Pat Murphy ran a good race. He was suited by the track, but badly ridden, short and interfered with at start. He was closing at the end. Pat has more courage than his brother Tim. Castake, badly ridden, ran a good race and closed strong. Racing Form does not favor mud. He has speed but not much courage. So tab San Mateo. Watch Blazes and Greenback. Both ran short today.
Scratched—Lord Marmion, 104; Einstein, 104; Uncle True, 101.
Overweights—La Goleta, 3¹/₂ pounds.

Winner—B. g. 5, by Hindoo—Alpena.

Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won driving. Ondague, slow to begin, was closing fast at the end. Barney Aaron Jr had a world of speed the first part. He was well in hand to the stretch, where he quit. Scratched—Wells Street, 96; Optimus, 96; Hillsboro, 103.
